Sad Death.

Mayor Jennings has received news of the sad death in San Francisco, at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, of Mrs. Minnie Souther, eldest daughter of James and Mary Jane Linforth. The lady was born and reared in San Francisco, and was a woman of education, refinement and many noble qualities of mind and heart. She will be missed by many, and by those more anxiously than the relatives of her family, Mr. William Paul, of this city.

Mr. J. M. Benton, of Carson, Nev., is in town, spending a few days.
The gentleman was a warm per-

Hawk Monk, for which famous sad rites. Mr. Benton carries with him a valuable reminder of Monk, in the shape of a handsome gold watch, which was presented to the stage driver some years ago by a number of his admirers.

"Seth's Work is Done."

This story, which won the prize offered by the HERALD for the best New Year's story, is about to be published in pamphlet form, and will be issued from the press on Friday next. Mr. J. H. Nelson, the author, has revised it in many particulars, and enlarged it so as to propagate the story to the interest.
It will be for sale at all book stores at the low price of 10 cents, and is certainly worth the money, for it is an admirable tale.

MORE OF IT.

The Irate Husband Blazes at the Author of His Domestic Unhappiness.

Some days ago the HERALD mentioned that a certain citizen of Farmington had returned home from Arizona, after an absence of several months, and discovered that his hired man was fulfilling all the duties of a husband, and taking the same care of everything as though he were himself the lady's huge lord and the owner of the estate. Since that time the event has been a matter of common talk, but nothing new was developed. The wronged husband was in this city on Wednesday, and left for Farmington on the 1st train. On the Utah Central freight train which leaves here about an hour and a half later, the hired man who sometimes gives the name of Kennedy, also went to Farmington. At the time the Utah Central train due here at 7:45 reached Farmington, Kennedy was mounting a hill on the way to the town when he ran across the injured husband, who, it is now thought was looking for his ex-hired man. Be that as it may, the wronged husband pulled out a pistol and banged away at Kennedy.
The shot was supposed to have taken effect, for he dropped; but springing to his feet, and flew like a bird down the railroad track. The wronged husband and others belted after the fleet-footed one, and the section man took a hand car and started in pursuit, but it was not ascertained that he had been overtaken before the train started for this city. The men on the train kept a constant watch all the way down, but saw nothing of the fugitive. The result of the affair may be ascertained to day.

bought from A. S. Studebaker, the manufacturer, this handsome vehicle, which has just now arrived and been set up by the Manufacture also on exhibition at Arrested For Perjury.

On Tuesday, Mr. C. J. Flagthor was arrested on a charge of perjury.
He was allowed to go on his own recognizance until Wednesday, when he was taken before Commissioner McKay and bound over in $500 to appear on Saturday on the charge mentioned. The arrest arises out of an injunction obtained in the case of Joseph Marion vs.
E. A. Ireland and T. C. Bailey, restraining execution on a judgment.
In making out the bond on the injunction Flagthor swore he was worth $1,500; and on this the complainant, Dr. J. M. Edmunds, alleged that the accused committed perjury. The case comes up before the commissioner on Saturday.

The Utah Eastern.

Some time ago it was reported that negotiations were pending looking to the transfer of the Utah Eastern Railroad from its present ownership to parties outside, who designed to complete it to this city.
There were at that time two or three parties contemplating the feasibility of the project, but for reasons, which have not yet become public, the matter failed and the little road remained as before.
There is no doubt of the practicability of the project; no question that it would prove a successful venture; and there is no disputing the point that the Utah Eastern once constructed to Salt Lake, would be popular from the time of completion; and it is for these reasons that the proposition for continuing it here has never been allowed to go by default. Other parties now have the matter under serious consideration, and from the most authentic source information comes of the strong belief that the Utah Eastern will be pushed ahead to Salt Lake, and direct rail connection between this city and the Park and Coeville established.

Young Mrs. Winthrop.

The closing performance of "Young Mrs. Winthrop" was given at the Walker Opera House last night to another large audience, composed of persons who had seen it on the two former occasions, as well as those who witnessed it for the first time. Nothing can be said regarding the piece, unless to make still further admission of the rare beauty of the lovely little drama, and add whatever of praise can be added to the excellence of the artists who comprise so universally excellent a group. The company goes east this morning, and whether its members should ever return to this city in an organized or individual capacity, they may feel certain of a hearty reception from a public which has learned to esteem them for their rare professional ability as well as their social and personal qualities.

The Unity Club.

The entertainment to be given by the Unity Club on Monday evening next will not only be the most elaborate effort of the kind by the Club, but will, beyond doubt, prove by long odds the finest entertainment of the kind ever given in this city.
Not a care is spared, not a detail overlooked to make it all that can be desired. There will be hall of statuary, ideal representations of subjects, imitations in life of the grand old masters, and enough to relieve it of the possibility of monotony. Every facility the Salt Lake Theatre offers that can contribute to the excellence of the entertainment will be utilized. Mr.
Armstrong is giving the benefit of his knowledge in posing, in grouping and in colors, while Mr. Tryon, scene painter, will not only give the benefit of his experience in scenes, and in stage settings, but will point two or three scenes expressly for the occasion, and will manage a dissolving light, which is to give effect to some of the exhibitions.
There will be music—vocal and instrumental—readings and recitations, embracing the best elocutionists and vocalists and performers we have in the city. It is certain to be as great a success artistically as it will undoubtedly be financially.

a more careful examination, on Wedman was intoxicated and was unmoney could not be found. There is still no clue to the would-be rob-

Nineteen.

The police station presented quite an animated appearance on Wednesday morning when Justice Speers donned the figurative judicial ermine and was braced up for dispensing even-handed justice.
Nineteen persons were drawn up before him, all rebuffed with drunkenness and disturbing the peace or profanity. All the charges held good, and seventeen out of the number paid their fines and silently stole away; the other two, not having the necessary lucre, will contribute their valuable services to beautifying the streets of the city for a number of days equal to the number of dollars charged against each.

A Lively Day.

Yesterday Justice Speers had a lively time, and his temple was pretty well thronged with callers, invited there by the festive policemen who looked tired and weary from walking all night and hauling offenders from Main street to the calaboose. By considerable squeezing and maneuvering, the whiskeyscented mob was brought before the magistrate and disposed of as follows:

Mack Mike, Jerry Carney, Martin Hanson, John Wright, Mack Nemair, David Frail, John Fennie, Neil Harvey and W. A. Phillips, were each muled $5, for drunkenness; Pat Hafferty, John Kelly, L. Dunlap, D. J. McCarthy, and Patsy DeLean were fined $10 each for being drunk and disturbing the peace; John Casady for assaulting Mack Nemair was fined $5 and costs; John Smith, vagrancy, $10; Henry Lamb, for being drunk and refusing to pay for the ferry stuff that made him so had to pay $7.50.

John Warner, one of the persons who raised the disturbance on East Temple street Saturday evening was charged with interfering with the officers while in the discharge of their duties and was fined $25.

Dennis Flannigan and Michael Fitzgerald, the soldiers who committed the riot on Saturday evening, waived an examination and were bound over in the sum of $200 bonds each to appear before the grand jury.
Warner was released on his personal recognizance in this case, but the $25 fine will hold him until the grand jury meets.
